Phil Johnson, State Director

BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

The Alternative Dispute Resolution System in Oklahoma is currently made up of thirteen (13) community-based Early Settlement Mediation centers and fifteen (15) state agency programs. This system which was authorized (1983) and funded (1985) by the state legislature through the Oklahoma Dispute Resolution Act, 12 O.S., § 1801 - 1813 et seq., is administered and supervised by the Administrative Director of the Courts (ADC) through her designee, the ADR System Director, with the ongoing guidance of the Dispute Resolution Advisory Board.

The Alternative Dispute Resolution System is designed to be centrally coordinated through the Administrative Office of the Courts. The purpose of the system, as stated in the Act, is "to provide to all citizens of this state convenient access to dispute resolution proceedings which are fair, effective, inexpensive, and expeditious." VOLUNTEER MEDIATORS

The mediations are conducted by carefully selected, trained, and experienced state-certified mediators who donate their time as volunteers. Mediator candidates for the programs are required to complete specialized training provided by the Alternative Dispute Resolution System and complete an experience-based practicum provided under the authority of the Administrative Director of the Courts in order to achieve certification. The Administrative Director of the Courts must certify both the trainers and the curriculum for the training. There are approximately 350 active volunteer mediators

NATIONAL PANDEMIC

During FY 2021 many of the District Courts did NOT use Early Settlement volunteer mediators in small claims court due to the pandemic and COVID restrictions, which greatly reduced the civil/small claims case numbers. The family cases held actually increased in FY 2021 as a result of conducting mediations virtually.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The important work of the Alternative Dispute Resolution System could not be accomplished without the support of the Supreme Court of Oklahoma, the Administrative Director of the Courts, the dedicated service of the members of the Dispute Resolution Advisory Board, and the generous commitment by the VOLUNTEER MEDIATORS.
