Volunteer of the Month

Volunteer of the Month- Angela White

by Jorjia Cash, Director

Angela White has been selected as our volunteer of the month for May 2022. Angela is certified in Basic Mediation training and is working toward certification in Family/Divorce Mediation. She serves Garvin County.

Angela decided to become a mediator because she had gone through mediation during her divorce. She did not have a fantastic experience. She felt the mediators were against her and shut down.

She believes the most rewarding thing to her is when she can "view both sides working together without input from that otherwise would not be possible. I may not be doing anything but sitting and listening to them, but that is all that is needed to feel heard and understood".

Angela first went through basic mediation training in 2017. She has been a dedicated volunteer, working around her busy work schedule to become certified. For more information about Angela, please check your email.

On behalf of the East Central Program, I want to thank Angela for being a great volunteer and making an impact on those around her!
